

National Food Safety Education Month®
National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation

September is

National Food Safety Education Month 2004

Be aware when you prepare

Some ideas on how to get involved:

- Conduct a food safety training class for all employees
- Share the FREE weekly activities, provided by the NRAEF's International Food Safety Council, to reinforce proper preparation
- Utilize the promotional materials provided at www.nraef.org/nfsem to promote National Food Safety Education Month in your employee newsletter or magazine

By participating in National Food Safety Education Month, you'll let your customers know food safety is not an option, but an obligation!
