

Program Roll-Out Guidelines: SOUTH DAKOTA

In South Dakota, responsible alcohol service training is voluntary. ServSafe Alcohol™ in print form is an approved program in South Dakota.

Mitigating benefit: The fines for first and second violations are cut in half for the licensee if the employee who sells or serves alcohol to a minor has completed an approved alcohol training program.

There is a supplement for South Dakota that must be incorporated into the ServSafe Alcohol training course given in the state. Approved ServSafe Alcohol instructors can download the South Dakota supplement at www.nraef.org/irc.
