

Responsible Alcohol Service for Red River Parish

Server Responsibility

As a Server of alcohol in the state of Louisiana, it is your responsibility to adhere to the local ordinance governing the sale and service of alcohol and tobacco. Ordinances may change so check with your local jurisdiction for the most recent ordinances.

The information presented in this Supplement has been compiled from sources and documents believed to be reliable and represents the best professional judgment of the National Restaurant Association and/or such other individuals or entities, as applicable. The accuracy of the information presented, however, is not guaranteed, nor is any responsibility assumed or implied, by the National Restaurant Association and/or any other individual or entity, as applicable for any damage or loss resulting from inaccuracies or omissions.

Copyright disclaimer

All materials used in conjunction with the ServSafe Alcohol® Online Course for Louisiana are subject to copyrights owned by the National Restaurant Association and other individuals or entities. Nothing available in the online course, including the names, trademarks, service marks, logos, content and supplements of the National Restaurant Association and/or other individuals or entities may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, modified, made available on a network, used to create derivative works, or transmitted in any form or by any means electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, scanning, or otherwise except (1) as permitted under Sections 107 and 108 of the 1976 United States Copyright Act, or (2) as expressly authorized on this Web site, or (3) without prior written permission of the National Restaurant Association and/or individuals or entities, as appropriate.

This supplement contains information from the following local ordinances:

Contents

Red River Parish	2
Hours of Operation	2
Sunday Sales	2
Noise Regulations	2
Litter.....	2
Zoning.....	2
Local Licensing of Servers and Local Server Training	2

Responsible Alcohol Service for Red River Parish

Red River Parish

Hours of Operation

In the Parish of Red River, licensed beverage establishments may sell and/or serve alcoholic beverages between the hours of 7:00 a.m. until 12:00 a.m. (midnight) Monday through Saturday. All patrons must leave the premises by 1:00 a.m.

Sunday Sales

In the Parish of Red River, the sale of alcohol is prohibited on Sundays.

Noise Regulations

Generally speaking, you should not create a level of noise that disturbs your neighbors. For specific requirements of the noise ordinance, you should consult an attorney.

Litter

You should always maintain the premises by conducting daily litter pick-ups.

Zoning

Zoning laws restrict what sort of activity can or can't occur in your establishment. Please review with your manager or owner what is and is not allowed at your particular location.

Local Licensing of Servers and Local Server Training

The state law requires servers to attend a state-approved course and receive a Responsible Vendor Server Permit.