

Responsible Alcohol Service for St. Martin Parish

Server Responsibility

As a Server of alcohol in the state of Louisiana, it is your responsibility to adhere to the local ordinance governing the sale and service of alcohol and tobacco. Ordinances may change so check with your local jurisdiction for the most recent ordinances.

The information presented in this Supplement has been compiled from sources and documents believed to be reliable and represents the best professional judgment of the National Restaurant Association and/or such other individuals or entities, as applicable. The accuracy of the information presented, however, is not guaranteed, nor is any responsibility assumed or implied, by the National Restaurant Association and/or any other individual or entity, as applicable for any damage or loss resulting from inaccuracies or omissions.

Copyright disclaimer

All materials used in conjunction with the ServSafe Alcohol® Online Course for Louisiana are subject to copyrights owned by the National Restaurant Association and other individuals or entities. Nothing available in the online course, including the names, trademarks, service marks, logos, content and supplements of the National Restaurant Association and/or other individuals or entities may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, modified, made available on a network, used to create derivative works, or transmitted in any form or by any means electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, scanning, or otherwise except (1) as permitted under Sections 107 and 108 of the 1976 United States Copyright Act, or (2) as expressly authorized on this Web site, or (3) without prior written permission of the National Restaurant Association and/or individuals or entities, as appropriate.

This supplement contains information from the following local ordinances:

Contents

St. Martin Parish	2
Hours of Operation	2
Sunday Sales	2
Noise Regulations	2
Litter.....	2
Zoning.....	2
Leaving premises with alcohol	2
Local Licensing of Servers and Local Server Training	3
City of Breaux Bridge.....	3
Hours of Operation	3
Sunday Sales	3
Noise Regulations.....	3

Responsible Alcohol Service for St. Martin Parish

Litter.....	3
Zoning.....	4
Leaving premises with alcohol.....	4
Local Licensing of Servers and Local Server Training.....	4
City of St. Martinville.....	4
Hours of Operation.....	4
Sunday Sales.....	4
Noise Regulations.....	4
Litter.....	4
Zoning.....	5
Leaving premises with alcohol.....	5
Local Licensing of Servers and Local Server Training.....	5
Other Regulations.....	5

St. Martin Parish

Hours of Operation

In the Parish of St. Martin, it is illegal to see or serve alcoholic beverages between the hours of 2 a.m. and 6 a.m. or to allow the possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages between the hours of 2:30 a.m. and 6 a.m. Only employees are allowed to remain on premises where the sale of alcoholic beverages constitutes 60% or more of the income of the business between the hours of 2:30 a.m. and 6 a.m.

Sunday Sales

In the Parish of St. Martin, there are no laws prohibiting the sale of alcohol on Sundays.

Noise Regulations

The Parish of St. Martin does have laws governing noise created by businesses. Generally speaking, you should not create a level of noise that disturbs your neighbors. For specific requirements of the noise ordinance, you should consult an attorney.

Litter

You should always maintain the premises by conducting daily litter pick-ups.

Zoning

Zoning laws restrict what sort of activity can or can't occur in your establishment. Please review with your manager or owner what is and is not allowed at your particular location.

Leaving premises with alcohol

In the Parish of St. Martin, it is legal for people to leave with open containers of alcohol.

Responsible Alcohol Service for St. Martin Parish

Local Licensing of Servers and Local Server Training

The Parish of St. Martin does require any person dispensing or serving alcoholic beverages in any retail establishment where the principal business is the sale of alcoholic beverages within the Parish of St. Martin, licensed for on-premise consumption to file an application for a Certification of Qualification to do so with the Office of the Sheriff of St. Martin Parish. Each applicant shall appear in person at the Office of the Sheriff of St. Martin Parish during regular business hours and shall present a medical certificate from the St. Martin Parish Health Unit stating that the applicant does not have any communicable disease and documentary evidence of age. The applicant will be photographed and fingerprinted at that time. This must be done prior to beginning of employment.

The Parish of St. Martin does not require any form of local server training.

The new state law that requires servers to attend this course also says that servers do not have to attend local server training courses if they participate in a state-approved course. By 2000, you will have to participate in state-approved courses.

City of Breaux Bridge

Hours of Operation

In the City of Breaux Bridge, the operating hours are: Monday 6 a.m. till 12:05 a.m. Tuesday -Thursday and on Sunday 6 a.m. till 2 a.m. and on Friday and Saturday, 5 a.m. till 2 a.m. No business shall be open to the public or allow the public to remain within, or to permit the consumption of alcoholic beverages in or upon any premises in which alcoholic beverages are sold at retail during the hours within which the sale of such beverages is prohibited; provided that in case of restaurants, hotels and other retail businesses where the sale of alcoholic beverages is less than 40% of income, such establishments may be kept open for business so long as alcoholic beverages are not sold or consumed.

Sunday Sales

In the City of Breaux Bridge, there are no laws prohibiting the sale of alcohol on Sundays

Noise Regulations

The City of Breaux Bridge does have laws governing noise created by businesses. Generally speaking, you should not create a level of noise that disturbs your neighbors. For specific requirements of the noise ordinance, you should consult an attorney.

Litter

You should always maintain the premises by conducting daily litter pick-ups.

Responsible Alcohol Service for St. Martin Parish

Zoning

Zoning laws restrict what sort of activity can or can't occur in your establishment. Please review with your manager or owner what is and is not allowed at your particular location.

Leaving premises with alcohol

In the City of Breaux Bridge, it is illegal for people to have open containers of alcohol on the streets, sidewalks or public property in the city within 200 yards of a lounge, barroom, restaurant, nightclub, quick shop, grocery store, or package liquor store, except within a public building. This may be suspending by the city council at the request of a civic organization for the purposes of conducting a citywide festival or fair.

Local Licensing of Servers and Local Server Training

The City of Breaux Bridge does not require servers and managers to get local server or "Bar Cards".

The City of Breaux Bridge does not require any form of local server training.

The new state law that requires servers to attend this course also says that servers do not have to attend local server training courses if they participate in a state-approved course. By 2000, you will have to participate in state-approved course.

City of St. Martinville

Hours of Operation

In the City of St. Martinville, it is illegal to sell or serve alcohol for on-premise consumption after 3 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday. It is illegal to possess or consume alcohol in an on-premise establishment after 3:30 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday. If alcohol sales account for more than 60% of sales, only employees may remain on premise after 3:30 a.m. Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year's Eve, New Year's Day and July 4th are exempt from closing hours.

Sunday Sales

In the City of St. Martinville, there are no laws prohibiting sale of alcohol on Sunday.

Noise Regulations

The City of St. Martinville does have laws governing noise created by businesses. Generally speaking, you should not create a level of noise that disturbs your neighbors. For specific requirements of the noise ordinance, you should consult an attorney.

Litter

You should always maintain the premises by conducting daily litter pick-ups.

Responsible Alcohol Service for St. Martin Parish

Zoning

Zoning laws restrict what sort of activity can or can't occur in your establishment. Please review with your manager or owner what is and is not allowed at your particular location.

Leaving premises with alcohol

In the City of St. Martinville, there are no laws prohibiting the possession of an open container of alcohol.

Local Licensing of Servers and Local Server Training

The City of St. Martinville does not require any form of alcohol server permit, "Bar Card" or ABO Card.

The City of St. Martinville does not require any form of local server training.

The new state law that requires servers to attend this course also says that servers do not have to attend local server training courses if they participate in a state-approved course. By 2000, you will have to participate in state-approved courses.

Other Regulations

In the City of St. Martinville, licensed establishments must keep the premise well lighted and all outside doors and windows must be open for view from the sidewalk or outside.